Mary Loughman is a long time student of Unity and professional Home Stager who recently discovered her love for writing. She began by offering books about Home Staging and has recently expanded this creative outlet to include visualization meditations and a fictional series of short stories called “The 12 Powers Series.” You can find out more about the series through her Instagram page at:

<http://www.instagram.com/the12powers>

The purpose of this “Meta-Phyction”® series is to walk each character through the process of finding (and experiencing) the power that resides within them.

The 12 Powers are: Faith, Strength, Will, Love, Wisdom, Power, Imagination, Understanding, Order, Zeal, Release and Life
